The debut novel from producer and screenwriter Simon Toyne; Sanctus is an action packed mystery with religion at its heart. For this reason you can be forgiven for making the inevitable Dan Brown Da Vinci Code comparisons, however Sanctus proves to be a far superior novel to Brown's over-hyped best seller.

The opening chapters of Sanctus are some of the best that I have read this year. Indeed so real is the description of Ruin that Simon Toyne conjures up, that I believed it was a real city until I 'googled' it. Despite being a fictional city you can imagine being there looking up at the citadel, a real tribute to the talents of the author.
