The Telling Room A Tale

“The Telling Room
embodies the spirit of slow food and life.”—Michael Pollan

“Elegant, strange,
funny, and insightful,
The Telling Room is a marvelous tale and a joyful read, a trip into a world peopled by some of the most remarkable characters—and, yes,
cheese—in

memory.”—Susan

infinite as a slice of great cheese, The Telling Room is by turns funny, self-deprecating, gorgeous,
delicious, sad, crude,
generous, and entirely transporting. I love the sense of life-or-death urgency and desperation and hopefulness that the narrator embodies as he hunts for his piece of longed-for cheese.

The Telling Room
July 27, 2013 • The Telling Room is a tale of friendship, betrayal, mythmaking, ancient history and, yes, really fabulous cheese.

Author Michael Paterniti tells NPR's Linda Wertheimer that the more.
